CONSTRUCTION IS NEARING COMPLETION on two new wings of Acalanes High School which will help relieve the over-crowded conditions in present classrooms. The wings include seven classrooms and a shop building. The new buildings, costing $226,000, are expected to be finished in November. D. A. Says Area Can Seek Exclusion from Hosp. District

Central Contra Costa will have an opportunity to remove itself from the county-wide hospital plan, even if said plan is approved in the general election, November 2. Deputy District Attorney Thomas McBride told the SUN today that the legal mechanism for exclusion is existent in the form of petition and an election for removal from the county district.

This opinion was rendered as a follow up after last week's tumultuous Improvement Association meeting where charges, counter-charges and questions filled the air until nearly midnight.

At that time the question arose as to whether Central Contra Costa had lost its opportunity for exclusion from the county's Hamilton proposal. It was explained that there was now no further chance for this area to remove itself prior to the general election.

The only possibility for setting up a small individual hospital district was assumed to be by petition for exclusion. McBride, who attended the meeting, agreed to check on the legality of such a course.

Today he reported that the General District Act provides for addition and annexation of areas as well as exclusion. There is a definite procedure set down for the latter, he said.

Thus, should the Hamilton plan receive approval, Central Contra Costa can still ask to be left out provided a petition is circulated and enough signatures gained to demand a county election in the area concerned, according to McBride. The political feasibility of this course remains open to question, he added.

Acalanes Parents To Hear Scouts

A student program is planned for Monday night at the Acalanes Parent's Club meeting at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Members of Explorers Unit No. 300, of the Orinda Boy Scouts will relate their experiences on their recent trip to the Canadian Wilderness. With Bill Morrish as master of ceremonies, the program will include color pictures and slides.

The possibilities concerning a Junior College in the area will be explained by a guest speaker.

The hostesses, the Orinda Mother's Club, will serve the refreshments amid decorations in the Hallowe'en theme.

Don Varsity faces Antioch Panthers

Acalanes' varsity will travel to Antioch Friday to face the Panthers of that city at 8 p.m.

Considering that ace backfieldman Kern Matlock and linemen Marvin Lucas and Lloyd Torchio were missing from last Friday's game, the Dons made a fair showing by emerging from the Acalanes-Alhambra game with a 0-0 tie.

The Dons, plagued by injuries, are not at full strength. The Panthers, last year's league crown holders, are at full strength.

High School Club Mothers Meet

A social meeting just to get acquainted was enjoyed by members of the Orinda Mothers' High School Club Monday at the home of Mrs. Ralph Hall on Davis Road.

After discussing the traffic hazard at Tunnel Road and the road leading to Acalanes, the group appointed Mrs. K. B. Anderson to study the situation and make a report at the next meeting.

Kids Enjoy 1st Saturday Movie

The first Saturday Movie for the kids sponsored by the Orinda Mother's Club went over with a bang.

On this Saturday's program are "Lightning Crandall," western cartoon, "Funny Face," Episode 1 of the "Trail of the Royal Mounted" and "How Young America Paints."

Mothers were pleased with the good behvaior of the children, Mrs. Stanley Allen said.

Mother's Club Supper Called Off

The Mother's Club supper scheduled for Monday, at the school at 7 p.m. has been postponed indefinitely.

Due to the illness of so many children causing cancellations, the Club felt it was better to postpone the party.

To Distribute Harmony Night Tryout Blanks

Applications will be distributed at the Orinda Grammar School Monday to children trying out for the Harmony Night Program, sponsored by the Orinda Barbershoppers.

On or before November 20, notice will be given as to when and where auditions will be held for preliminary trials.

A musical scholarship will be presented to the most talented musical student at the final audition slated for November 12 at the school.

Judges will be selected from the music departments at Acalanes High School, St. Mary's and the University of California.

Scheduled on the Harmony Night program are offerings by the Orinda quartet and other singers from San Francisco and Berkeley.

Association Board to Meet

Action to extend Las Vegas and Charles Hill Roads will be discussed by the Board of Directors of the Orinda Association at their regular meeting Monday night at the Fire House.

The group is awaiting a reply from the Monte Vista Improvement Association on this matter.

Can Anything Be Done To Save Oak Trees?

Wails are heard all over Orinda, "Can't something be done to preserve our oak trees? Beautiful and old, old trees by the roadside, on hill sides, in the fields and even in some gardens are dying from the onslaughts of the oak moth."

Scout Fund Campaign Extended Two Weeks Through October 31

Extension of the joint fund campaign of the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts of the Diablo area for two weeks to October 31 has been announced by T. K. Ulyatt of Lafayette, chairman of the campaign.

Need for enlarging the force of volunteer workers by more than a third plus the "surprise" rains are cited by Ulyatt as the reasons for the extension.

The drive is going nicely, according to Ulyatt but, even without inclement weather, it takes more time to cover every neighborhood thanks to the growth in population. In addition, the development of wholly new sections has necessitated increasing the organization.

The campaign goal of $17,500 is judged by a joint finance committee of both organizations as the very minimum needed to defray expenses of operation and activity for both Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts. Since the drive in 1947 both organizations, which total 2000, almost equally divided, have shown over 400 increase in membership and next year will exceed a total of 2,500, according to the groups' executives.

In view of the fact that the Scouts are the area's only agencies of Community Chest, the drive is being conducted simultaneously with the Bay Cities' Chest drives.

Church Trustees To Be Honored

Trustees of Orinda Community Church and their families are to be honored at the first "Church Night" dinner to be held next Wednesday evening, at the church hall, at 6:15.

All families of the church and congregation are invited, according to the Council committee in charge of the dinner series.

Ralph Phelps will act as chairman of the evening. Mary Elizabeth Tomme, newly elected chorister, will be introduced and will assist in the musical program. At each of the monthly church nights, some particular business will be introduced for general discussion, the item for October being the tentative budget for 1949.

"With the rapid increase in the church and constituency," states Rev. Fred Morrow, the minister, "these church nights will furnish sociability and give an opportunity for a larger measure of democracy in church affairs". The committee is composed of Kirk Miles, John McFarland and Ralph Phelps.

The Women's Guild will arrange the dinner, with Mrs. E. A. Dawson, 2271, and Mrs. Fred Morrow, 7901, as reservation chairmen for October. The affair is to be "pot-luck".

Social Security Subject for Talk

A talk on the history, mechanics and future of social security by Clarks C. Weikel of the Oakland Social Security office was the top attraction at the Orinda Lions meeting Wednesday. C. P. McVicker was in charge of the program.

New members were initiated also at the gathering. After an introductory speech by Lion President George Hartzell, Bill McVicker, Roy Stuart and Pat Train were put through the paces of admittance.

Acalanes Seeks Safety Devices at Martinez Cutoff

Discussion of how soon various additional units will be needed to meet the growing demands and size of the Acalanes High School student body was the main topic before the Acalanes Board of Trustees' meeting Tuesday night.

School superintendent Neil Parsons reports that an architects representative was on hand to provide technical infromation. The group is striving to set up a planning schedule 2 years ahead of actual need, because that is the minimum time, according to Parsons, in which school plans can be prepared and executed.

The Board also voted to request immediate action to install safety devices at the intersection of Pleasant Hill Road and Mt. Diablo Blvd. (Martinez cut-off). Last year the trustees tried to obtain state help but were denied. They will now contact C. H. Purcell, state director of public works, and Tony DeLap, state senator, in a renewed effort to eliminate the traffic hazard at this intersection. Parsons pointed out that 30 busloads of children daily enter the danger area, to say nothing of dozens of parents' or teachers' cars.

Members of the board went on record as willing to cede right of way property to facilitate a proposed new road to Walnut Creek. Parsons pointed out that the group agreed to such a proposal 7 years ago but at that time the county refused to take over the land. Now, in response to several requests from residents, members again agreed to cede the right of way, providing the county will assume responsibility.

Nov. 4, 6 Set for Dramateur Show

Dates for the Orinda Dramateur production "Good Bad Man" were set at the Club's Monday meeting during which officers were elected.

On November 4 and 6 at the Acalanes Auditorium, "Good Bad Man" will be presented, with tickets selling at $1.00 for adults and $.40 for kids, tax included.

Officers elected were: Vice president, Mona Inglis; Treasurer, Helen Vurek; Assistant Producer, Elizabeth Moller; and Stage Manager, James Gardiner.

Continuing in office for six months more are President, Mike Murphy; Secretary, Lucille Anthonisen; Producer, Andy Blalock; Publicity Chairman, Betty Broderick; and Membership Chairman, Peg Keesling.

Members who will assist in the production of the 'Good Bad Man' are Mary Gray and Belva Leland, properties; Katherine Tynes, hand props; Harold Ohleyer, sound effects; Vance Reynolds, lighting; Alice Diehl and Lila Murphy, costumes; and Betty Cobb and assistants, posters.

Reviving the one act plays, the group plans to start on two or three new plays to be presented at regular Dramateur meetings before a group of guests and members.

Gardeners Take Note of System

Good news for the gardeners who have been unable to get rid of the damaging pest of rodents familiarly known as gopher-mice, comes from an Orinda resident who says he traps six or seven every day by the simple expedient of sinking into the ground cans about the size of a two pound coffee can flush with the surface and half filling the cans with water. When the thirsty mice come for a drink they get in but can't climb their way out, and drown!

Elliott Johnson Heads Board

Elliott Johnson of Lafayette has been elected chairman of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District board of directors. R. E. Wadsworth of Orinda will serve as vice-president.

Johnson replaces Lawson Weill, Walnut Creek, who continues as a member of the board. Elections took place at the recent reorganization meeting after the sanitary district election when incumbent members were re-elected to their director posts.

Country Club Activity Center

Orinda Country Club is the center of a variety of golf and social activities with a dance Saturday being next up on the list. Qualifying round for the director's tournament will start Saturday and end Sunday.

A ladies luncheon and card party is set for October 21. Another dance will be held October 23 and October 30 is carnival night with masquerade dress and featuring two bands.

In November there will be an 18-hole turkey tournament and on November 18 another ladies' luncheon and card party.

P. O. to Rent Cars by Hour

Bids to rent vehicles without drivers on an hourly basis for the delivery of mail on three routes in Orinda have been reopened for the quarter ending December 31, 1948. Proposals to date are for 90 cents an hour.

Anyone wishing to take advantage of the opportunity to bid may get forms at the Orinda Post Office. The vehicles will be used about five hours a day six days a week.

The owner of the vehicle will be required to keep it in satisfactory condition at all times and to bear all necessary expense in connection with the operation and maintenance of the car or truck.

Baseball Star To Move Here

Ferris Fain, Philadelphia Athletes first baseman, and his family will move into their new home on Orchard Road sometime this month.

Relying entirely on their designer, Ed Buttler, and Builder Jay Hancock, to get their home built for them while they were East for the baseball season, the Fains saw it for the first time when they returned here the first of October.

The Fains have two children, a boy and a girl.

Festive, Spanish Air Sets Tone Of Children's Parade Before Movie

With quite a festive and a Spanisr air the children's parade featuring the opening of "Teatro Para Ninos", the children's theater, wended its colorful way from the Santa Maria church grounds, through the Village to the Orinda School last Saturday.

Leading the parade was a red convertible car driven by Mrs. Thos. Bacon in a Spanish costume and tall hat. Following it were boys on their bikes, gayly trimmed with crepe paper in the school colors green and white, or with streamers in Spanish red.

The rest of the children in sombreros, plaid shirts and jeans, or in gay little Spanish costumes followed on foot, smiling and seeming to have the time of their life.

AWAIT MOVIE

Arrived at the school, the parade broke up. The children rested, got the inevitable drink of water, and gathered on the school steps to await the opening of the school auditorium for the show at two o'clock.

The main picture screened was "Swiss Family Robinson." A committee of the Parent Teacher Association sponsoring these Saturday afternoon movies for children, had met the night before at the Tob Bacon home for cocktails and a dinner to talk over parade plans and further movie plans. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moylan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Borden, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. George Klement, Mrs. George Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Herzig, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Miles, and Mr. and Mrs. Wally Marsh.

PRESENTS SPEAKERS

A guest of Mrs. Miles was Mary Bennett of Mills College. During the evening Mr. Klement, as a representative of the Dads' Club presented with facetious remarks the three chairmen of the parade, Mrs. Klement, Mrs. Clifford, and Mrs. Bacon with the three symbols of their authority, a shiny brass captain's badge, a billy Club and a pair of hand cuffs (all from the dime store).

Then the group went down to the school to preview the three pictures to be shown. This they will do before every showing of a film. They will welcome suggestions about choice of films from other parents.

CHILDREN EAGER

The children were a very eager audience and well behaved. The picture machine was operated by Jerry Vurek, assisted by Jim Wilkins, both under the supervision of Tom Bacon, Jr.

As the children left the theater they were given a small piece of a huge decorated cake which had on it, "Success to the Teatro Para Ninos".

The large posters were made by Leon Woolsey, Mr. Broderick and Bion Atkinson. The small placards carried by the bike riders and some of the smaller children were the gift of the Dramateurs.

Kids' Trick or Treat to Help Europe

The philanthropy committee of the Mothers' Club of the Orinda Grammar school composed of Mesdames Fred Morrow, Arthur Henry, Henry Tarris, H. J. Teachout, George Mulligan, F. Groenning, Lance Barden, Donald Krotz and Charles Blue, are asking Orinda residents to help the school children in their latest service plans.

The Orinda children probably more than those of any other area have consistently kept up their program for help to the devastated lands overseas. They have already contributed weekly their nickels and dimes to the amazing amount to date of more than $3600! They have also brought in weekly donations of clothes.

Now they are willing to give up the fun of the time honored custom of asking for sweets on Hallowe'en when they ring the house bell and shout, "Trick or treat" and say instead, "Some thread, yarn, paper of pins or needles, scissors, zippers, please for the sewing kits we're sending to Europe?" Surely all will be ready to respond generously.

Mother's Club, Guild Turn in News

The Orinda Mother's Club and the Women's Guild of the Orinda Community Church and the Orinda Sun are all benefitting under a system of exchanging news for money in the Club treasury.

Mrs. G. Chester Brown has been working hard for the Women's Guild for the past year collecting news items and sending them to the Orinda Sun. Members of the Guild are asked to phone or write news to Mrs. Brown, 164 Orinda Highway, Orinda 5871.

Just recently the Orinda Mother's Club adopted the same system for raising money for the Club's activities and donations. Mrs. Stanley Allen, 76 Orchard Road, Orinda 3196, is in charge.

Mrs. Allen urges members to turn in news about their doings—birthday parties, dances, cocktail parties, trips, sicknesses, births, anything.

Both organizations are paid for their regular club publicity, in addition to the social and other news items.

No One is Right Nor Wrong in Current Hospital Dispute

By POLITICUS

When Dr. Clifford L. Feiler last week opened up with a barrage on the county-wide hospital plan and the sidetracking of the Central Contra Costa Hospital district plan, he set off a chain of reactions which is engulfing the entire county.

Mighty warm under the collar are the County Medical Association, Jack Cummings and the Board of Supervisors, leaders of the local hospital Memorial Association, the local people who dashed about like mad for a couple of days getting over 1,000 names on the petition, AND, to say the least, Dr. Feiler.

Now Politicus pretends that he sees all, knows all and tells all. But he's as confused as is the rest of the innocent citizens who are watching the battle. And why?

ISSUE NEITHER BLACK NOR WHITE

Well, the issue is not all black or white; no one all-right or all-wrong. You can't pin the blame on any one group; in fact, you can't "blame" anyone. That's what makes it tough.

The controversy is even rougher because unfortunately personalities and groups have been brought into it. And the situation is even more difficult because this writer firmly believes that all the principals involved have acted honestly, have followed their convictions and are apparently doing what they think is best for the "people".

Here's the situation:

A small group of men in our area, Walnut Creek, San Ramon Valley, Lafayette and Orinda (and Concord at one time) have worked for about three years to establish a hospital in the Walnut Creek-Lafayette vicinity.

They swung into action when the Hamilton Plan for a county-wide district was announced some months ago. This proposal would build a hospital in Richmond, a small one in the Walnut Creek area, renovate and operate the Martinez County Hospital, and purchase of people of Concord. They are to vote on formation of their own district.)

The Concord Hospital was ignored completely, apparently on the grounds that it is in such poor condition and that it is of little value. This has angered Concord doctors, who own the hospital, and the pepole of Concord. They are to vote on formation of their own district and have been excluded from the county plan.

VOTE TO FORM DISTRICT

Proponents of our own hospital district voted to form a local district and to be excluded from the county-wide proposal. After months of delays in getting the petitions in legal form, they suddenly learned that about three days remained to gather sufficient signatures to get the proposal on the ballot.

Neill Cornwall, Walter Rugh, Feiler, Mrs. Donn Court and others enlisted the aid of their friends and dashed about the district to get 1,084 signatures. The petitions were delivered to the Board of Supervisors with only minutes to spare before the deadline.

It was hard work; but they succeeded.

The Supervisors voted to put the measure on the ballot, along with the county-wide plan and the Concord proposal.

LEADERS CHANGE TO COUNTY PLAN

About a week before the Supervisors' hearing on the plans (September 27), this newspaper and the Walnut Kernel learned that apparently the leaders of the local group had changed their minds and would support the county plan, rather than the local district plan — if the Supervisors publicly would state that a hospital would be built in our area at the same time as one in Richmond and if they would ask the Legislature to allow the county-wide hospital board to be elected on a supervisorial basis rather than from the county at large.

At the hearing, Supervisors met these stipulations. After meeting with Cornwall and Rugh, the Supervisors took the local plan off the ballot.

No one asked that the local area be excluded from the county-wide proposal. A hearing was scheduled for the local plan November 8, after the election. Only if the county plan was voted down, would the local plan be revived.

DISCUSSION AT IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

At a special meeting of the Lafayette Improvement Association last week, a group of county officials and big wigs explained the county plan and John Nejedly told why the local association decided to favor it.

Dr. R. R. Pinger of Concord spoke in favor of a local district.

Then, Dr. Feiler ignited the fuse. From 10:15 until almost midnight, he tore into the county plan and argued that when the local plan was thrown out, this area was double-crossed. There was rebuttal and counter-rebuttal.

NO CHOICE BETWEEN TWO PLANS

But there is really no choice now, Thomas McBride from the district attorney's office said he would check to see if this area can petition to be excluded from the county plan, even after the county-wide plan is approved.

Very briefly, those are the facts.

Now . . . what's back of all this? Who's right and wrong?

Well, as we said before it's neither black, nor white, but comment from people in our area seems to boil down to this:

1. WHY WASN'T THE CITIZENRY INFORMED BY THE LEADERS OF THE CENTRAL CONTRA COSTA MEMORIAL HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION THAT A SWITCH WAS TO BE MADE?

"We realize that almost all of the work on a local district has been accomplished by members of the Association, yet, it would appear that after so much had been done, and petitions filed, that public announcement and discussion would have been fairer and wiser. Actually it was all a hush-hush secret, and even men who worked on the local plan were not informed," so goes one school of thought.

(Editor's note: Dr. Feiler charges that Rugh, Cornwall and Nejedly took it upon themselves to make the decision. President Rugh, however, stated that a board of directors meeting was called and the five members who attended voted to support the county plan. In addition to the three named above, Mrs. Fred Wilkens and John Heisner were at the meeting. The other eight directors failed to attend.)

FEW MEN MAKE DECISION

2. OBSERVERS ASK IF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS AND THE FIVE MEMBERS OF THE LOCAL HOSPITAL BOARD HAD THE MORAL RIGHT TO SIDETRACK THE LOCAL HOSPITAL PLAN IN THE FACE OF A PETITION SIGNED BY 1,084 VOTERS IN THE AREA?

These same observers find the question difficult to answer.

After all, some say, there has been little effort expended by anyone but the leaders of the local association and, acting in the best interest of the community, they have a right to change their minds.

Then, too, others point out, as did Jack Cummings, that the Supervisors depend on community and group representatives for guidance and the Supervisors were justified in following the reccommendations of the leaders.

3. ANOTHER PERTINENT QUESTION ASKED: WHY DID FEILER WAIT UNTIL NOW, WHEN NOTHING MUCH CAN BE ACCOMPLISHED, TO START THE CONTROVERSY?

It is pointed out that he has been keenly interested in this for a long time, and it is his responsibility to be on hand for the various meetings and hearings. Also, some suggest that he must have known what was going on, particularly since the action of the local association was predicted in the local newspapers.

Dr. Feiler, who only very recently returned from a vacation in Hawaii, said he was never informed of the decision by the local men and stated that the SUN carried only "rumors" of what would happen. He said it is impossible to attend every meeting of organizations in the area, although he attempts to be at many of them.

4. WHICH PLAN IS MORE POPULAR IN THE AREA?

Rugh says that in his opinion the county-wide proposal is the more popular. Cornwall states he feels it is doubtful that the local plan would have carried. Both qualify their opinions. Feiler believes that the local plan is by far the more popular.

Actually no one knows. Nor does anyone know which plan would give the area the better hospital.

LEADERS SINCERE IN ACTIONS

There seems no question that the leaders of the local hospital association are sincere and honest in deciding to support the county-wide plan. Remember they have worked diligently toward establishing a hospital here and it was no easy decision to toss all their efforts aside. It would have been a real feather in their caps to see their plan materialize.

Cornwall emphasized that each plan has advantages and disadvantages, but it was the Board's opinion that the community would get a better hospital sooner and at lower cost through the county plan.

Equally sincere and honest is Dr. Feiler and others who continue to advocate the local plan. And it is to Feiler's credit that he is willing to stick his chin out and fight for his beliefs, particularly since his own medical association has gone on record favoring the county plan. Feiler pulls no punches when he firmly believes in something.

Too often medical men hide behind their professional status ignoring important questions, when actually they should participate in public affairs.

But not so Dr. Feiler. To quote Neill Cornwall:

"Dr. Feiler has always given unstintingly and unselfishly of his time and efforts in community affairs."

Captain Sandford Sez:

This is about the Girl Scouts and Bill "Got Rocks" Gordon. Now don't start anything! I didn't say Bill was a Girl Scout. In fact, he has confidentially assured me that he is not and is not going to be. Bill's two daughters are both Girl Scouts, and his only son gave his life for his country in a U. S. submarine off the coast of Japan.

If Bill likes a thing he likes it a whole lot; and he is that way about the Girl Scouts. He has persuaded Larry Sollars, owner of The Curve, to donate his lot for the sale of Christmas trees on behalf of the Girl Scout movement.

In 1946 Bill Gordon secured for the Girl Scout movement a little over $1,300 which made the 1947 camp session a very great success. Now Bill is in the ring again for the Girl Scouts and he sez, "I'll give 100% of my time. How about a few of the Girl Scout dads helping me with the stands and other work for the Christmas trees?"

Bill told me that the 100%-cooperation of all the merchants was a source of great joy to him. Let's all get behind this thing and help Bill put it over big.

My wife showed me an ancient cook book recently which I scanned with great interest.

The date was about 1880 and the illustrations of the latest thing in cooking stoves with which the ardent swain of that period was recommended to entice his sweetheart, are simply terrific. The picture of a venerable brass cuspidor with the caption "Save your carpets" raises a question of doubt as to the accuracy of aim shown by the tobacco eaters of the period.

The Chinese doctor is only paid while his patients are well and the pay stops the moment they are sick. I cannot help but think that the Union Labor Leaders should be paid on a similar basis. In other words when the men are happy and satisfied, darn good pay . . . and when they are not . . . none. Period.

Good-bye now

Womens' Guild Hears Speaker On Amendments

The Women's Guild held a most interesting and well attended meeting on October 5 at the home of Mrs. C. F. Zamlock, Moraga Road.

The speaker, Mrs. Kingman of the League of Women Voters, Berkeley, began her discussion of the 18 amendements to appear on the ballot in the coming election during the luncheon period as she had to leave soon after two o'clock to address another group in Lafayette.

She prefaced her remarks by stating that she would try to explain each amendment and tell briefly what her study group had learned were the proponents' arguments in favor of the amendment, and what the arguments of the opposition were, and that with one exception she would not state what her own decision was or that of the study group.

GIVES BOTH SIDES

In a charmingly and vivacious manner she did this. Notes were taken, and one by one decisions for or against a measure were probably made by many on questions they would not have clearly understood otherwise. The only amendment Mrs. Kingman asked all to work for and vote yes on was Number 14 on Public Housing.

DINNER CALLED OFF

Following this discussion Mrs. Barden anounced that the previous plans for a dinner in connection with the Guild's bazaar on November 13 had to be given up as the school auditorium was in use every Saturday afternoon for the children's movie leaving no time for the preparation of a big dinner. Instead, the bazaar would open at 7:30. The ticket admission would include hot coffee and cake free. During the evening there would be a men's fashion show and a county fair featuring some unusual and humorous contests.

Mrs. Dwight Chapman lead the devotions by reading a paper in which the theme was, "Pray more and worry less."

Pilgrim Fellowship Group Meets

The Pilgrim Fellowship group met Sunday evening with 17 present.

New Acalanes Freshmen welcomed in were Robin Hooper, Peggy Everest, Phylis Pyle, Eleanor Neldham, Carl Drews, and Dick Reed. Warren Everson presided, assisted by Shirley MacIninch. Robert Wickman led the discussion based on Crawford and Woodward's outstanding new book, "Better Ways of growing up."

The group made further plans for their Hallowe'en Trick or Treat. They will make the rounds from 7 to 9 p.m. on the 30th, leaving a paper pumpkin pinned on the door to indicate the house has been visited.

Besides things for sewing kits they will also welcome old clothing, toys, stuffed animals, soap, pencils at least 5 inches long, erasers, note books, and shoe lacings. These contributions will be shipped to Hungary through the American Friends Service.

A Message to DEMOCRATS

On September 17, 1948, the Houston Chronicle, published by Jesse H. Jones, a member of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Cabinet, recommended the election of Thomas E. Dewey and Earl Warren.

An editorial said

"It should be obvious to all thinking people that we need a change in our National Administration. To deny this would be to close our eyes to conditions both at home and abroad, and generally to the mess we are in."

The Chronicle editorial said that however well-intentioned President Truman's leadership may be, "He has not shown the leadership necessary for the successful management of our national and international affairs . . . it has been demonstrated that Mr. Truman cannot work successfully with Congress or even lead members of his own party . . . open warfare between the executive and legislative branches of the government necessarily makes for bad administration at home and weakens us abroad."

"Asserting that an overhauling is badly needed, the editorial continued "entrenched government has no intention of abandoning any field it has entered, so to accomplish any appreciable retrenchment will require a form of surgery which can only be executed by new leadership; by an administration that is not loaded and waterlogged with hangers-on.

"We Democrats can no longer discharge our responsibilities to our country, to our children and to our children's children by taking refuge in the fact that we have always been of a particular political faith; that we are Democrats and can vote no other ticket.

"Tradition should not dictate our decisions. When we go to the polls to cast our votes for President and Vice President for the next four years, patriotism should tell us to forget party labels this year.

"This will not be a case of leaving our party; rather our party, as we inherited it from our fathers, and as we would still like to have it, has left us.

"The Republican Party nominees, Governors Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Earl Warren of California, have both had successful experience in administering the affairs of their great states and are undoubtedly well qualified to direct affairs of our national government.

"THE CHRONICLE THEREFORE RECOMMENDS THEIR ELECTION."

THESE COUNT!

PRICES
Every effort must be expended to halt the inflationary spiral and to cut living costs.

HOUSING
California must press for low cost housing and slum clearance, advancing generally programs such as executed for the veterans.

WATER
We have water demand above current development. Water is one of California's lifelines.

POWER
The California of 15,000,000 . . . the state of tomorrow . . . demands water power development and building of reserves.

TAXES
Elimination of all unnecessary and overlapping services in all phases of government.

WAGES
Decent wages with purchasing power and decent living conditions.

PROTECTION
Protection of home, the individual and man's dignity.

LOYALTY

Featherbedding has robbed labor of public esteem. It forces responsible workmen to stand idle or reduce their productive capacity—in a nation that grew to greatness because it knew how to produce! That's why featherbedding is no pet of responsible labor. That's why thinking working people say: END FEATHERBEDDING! HELP BRING PRICES DOWN! VOTE YES ON 3!

'Orinda Roads' Still on Sale

The Orinda Roads booklet is still on sale for fifty cents each, or $4 for ten. The booklet has the story by Dr. Galen Fisher of how Orinda got its name, and an alphabetical list of all the road names that are Spanish with their English meaning.

It also contains two picture maps of the entire Orinda area. Were it not for the fact that an artist had practically given her work on these maps as a gift to the Guild which sponsors the booklet, it could not possibly be sold so cheaply.

The maps were taken from the latest County map of Contra Costa County and are therefore accurate in detail. The illustrating of the maps is the clever and original work of the Sacramento artist, Marjorie C. Korn.

Lions Catch Fish For Club Dinner

George Hartzell arranged a fish fry for the Orinda Lions Club on Monday at the Willows.

Bringing home the catfish and bass from Terminus near Lodi were Mr. and Mrs. George Hartzell; C. P. McVicker and son; Mr. and Mrs. Don Hunter, their children, and Mrs. Hunter's mother, Mrs. Abbott; Clyde Bumgarner and his father-in-law; Bill Salvage; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Navone, Roy Nason, F. M. Silva, Jerry McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ortland, Fred von Guenthner, Van Barber, B. Snow, and Ray Devin.

Pool Board Meets At Mrs. Peg Winters'

Board members of the Orinda Park Pool voted to tear down the pool filter and repair it at the meeting last Wednesday night at Mrs. Peg Winters' home.

Newly appointed board members who will take office in December sat in on the meeting. They were Gren von Guenthner, George Matey, Pat Train, Doris Collins.

'The Church' Is Sermon Talk

"The Church — Mercy, Cooperative" is the theme for the regular morning worship service of Orinda Community Church Sunday, at 11 o'clock.

The sermon on this subject by the Rev. Fred Morrow will be the third in an October series on "The Church". There is room for additional choir members, according to Mrs. Kennon Tomme, the church's chorister, and persons who wish to take advantage of the opportunity are invited to attend the rehearsal on Thursday evening at 7:30.

Mrs. Tomme also conducts a Junior choir rehearsal on Friday afternoon at 3:00. The high school age Fellowship meets with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Twining at the church at 7 o'clock Sunday evening. The Sunday school sessions begin at 9:30.

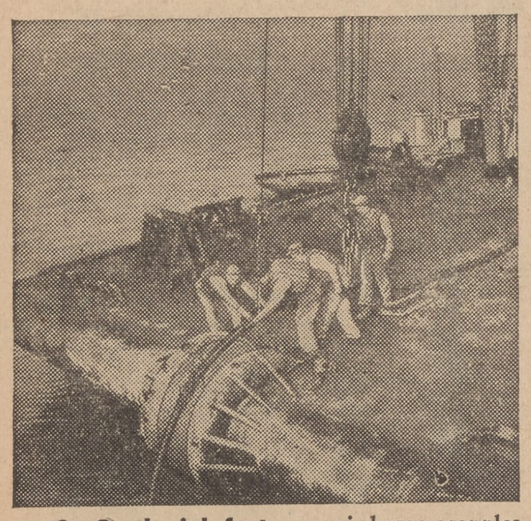
How an injured cable calls for help

1. Here's the "ear"—an electronic ear called a low insulation alarm. It listens for underwater cables to signal they're in trouble. Right now the meter shows something's happened . . . perhaps a sharp submerged rock has cut a cable . . . and vigilant telephone men using another testing device locate the break that may be miles away.



2. On the job fast, a repair barge grapples for the cable and lifts it from its underwater bed . . . guided almost to the exact spot by the distant test center. And the moment the break was discovered, other telephone people in the Traffic Control Bureau set up emergency routes to make any delay on your calls as brief as possible.

3. At top speed, skilled workmen splice in a new section and the cable is soon back in service. Although there are hundreds of underwater crossings in the West's many bays and rivers, such emergencies are infrequent. But telephone people are on the job 24 hours a day to keep your telephone ready to work for you any time you need it.

4. When you make a telephone call, you hire a valuable servant for low wages . . . a more useful servant than ever before. It can do more jobs, run more errands. For today there are twice as many telephones in the West as ten years ago. Thousands more go in each month. And each new phone added makes your telephone that much more useful.

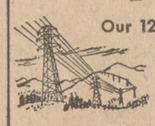
How to handle high voltage power lines

It takes skill to handle high voltage lines... but it's everyday work for P.G. and E.'s highly trained crews. Wielding their "hot sticks" or live-line tools—more than 80 in each kit—they service and repair California's electrical highways to keep the flow of power trouble-free. Line crews are provided with rubberized equipment that weighs 100 pounds, including sleeves, snap-on jackets, line hoses (or "snakes"), insulator hoods (or "pigs"), and blankets.

Rubber gloves designed to resist 10,000 volts give ample protection to workmen who handle "hot" lines carrying up to 4500 volts, the prescribed safety limit. With "hot sticks" special crews handle lines charged with as much as 220,000 volts.

Three years' field work, including a "hot line" training course, are required to become a P. G. and E. lineman. 600 men have qualified in the past year—men who today are helping speed more power to Northern and Central California.

For the record



Our 12,000 miles of line built since the war would reach halfway around the world.

We are adding nearly 2 million horsepower of generating capacity.

Our power expansion is the greatest in the nation today.

Work never stops on our power-building program

Steel Co. Open House Planned

More than 200 employees of the Pittsburg Plant of Columbia Steel Company are undergoing special training to serve as guides at the Open House Day on Friday, October 22.

These employees will be the "answer men" for waves of inquiries and questions raised by visitors as they inspect Columbia's 400-acre steel plant. Some of the guides will be stationed in parking areas, others at entrance gates, and still others at strategic locations throughout the various mill buildings to explain equipment and describe operations.

Branch Plans Turkey Shoot

Meeting Tuesday at the Orinda Country Club, the Orinda Branch of the Childrens' Hospital of the East Bay made plans for a Turkey Shoot at the Diablo Country Club on November 11.

The group's next meeting in November will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Rupley.

Year-round School Plan Suggested

A revolutionary idea for operating schools 12 months per year was presented by B. O. Wilson, Contra Costa school superintendent, to the Central Coast Counties section of the California State Chamber of Commerce recently.

After a general discussion of the proposal, the group agreed that any economy gained by this more efficient use of buldings would be offset by its damaging effect on merchants and resort owners. A large part of their business is geared to vacations and under a staggered vacation schedule they would suffer increased operating expenses with no increase in revenue.

Wilson's plan involved a 4-term high school year with vacations spotted through the 12 months. This would permit accommodation of one third more pupils than can now be handled without additional buildings, he said.

School officials did point out the need for shorter vacations. They stressed the fact that teachers start in each fall teaching over again what their pupils forget during the lengthy summer closing.

Aircraft Carrier To Be Displayed

An unusual opportunity to come aboard and inspect an aircraft carrier as well as many other Navy combat and supply ships will be provided to Bay Area residents on Sunday, October 24, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. when the Oakland Naval Supply Center holds its gigantic Navy Day Open House.

The carrier assigned to the huge Naval Supply Center for Navy Day Open House is the USS Rendova (CVE 114) one of several escort carriers now in commission in the Navy.

They are a class of 22,000 ton vessels, 557 feet in length, with an extreme beam of 104 feet.

Chicken, Egg Featured On Three-Cent Stamp

"Which came first, the chicken or the egg?" Assistant Farm Advisor Joe Borden says the poultry industry, for all its advanced research and scientific practices hasn't yet found the answer to that one.

In fact, if you will look closely at the new three-cent stamp issued in honor of the centennial of the American Poultry Industry, you'll see the chicken still puzzling over that question. Or perhaps his bewilderment is over the fact that the egg in the lower right hand corner is marked "3c". Any housewife can tell you it's been many a day since she's seen a three-cent egg.

Planting Plans Submitted to Club

Final detailed planting plans for the traffic triangle located at El Toyonal and San Pablo Highway were submitted to the Orinda Garden Club by Howard Gilkey, landscape architect, at the Club's meeting held last week at the Orinda Country Club.

Mrs. Jefferes Rodwell was appointed chairman of the group of members to supervise this project. A great deal of work must be done within the next few months on this project before the rainy season sets in.

John Aiken, well known Bay Area speaker, talked to the Club on "October in Your Garden".

Mrs. Malcolm Lamb was appointed chairman of the group of members who planned to work on the Orinda Grammar School yard projects.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday this week, the Orinda Willows celebrated its fourth birthday, plus the return of Chef Armando who has been vacationing in Europe.

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY
Mrs. R. T. Hoyer entertained at a double birthday party for her sons Roger and Roy. It was a luncheon party and the decorations were the Halloween theme. Roy, two years old, on Monday October 11th had as his guests John Gibbons, Cassandra Coates, Ronald Joyce and Billy Lancione. Roger, five years old on October 7th, had as his guests Kit von Guenthner, Joan Hoyer, Linda Lancione, John Coates, Daryl Courtright, Dona, Craig and Bruce Goldstein, Stephen Wood, Taffy MacLeod, Myrna Decker, Judy Courtright, Ginnie Gibbons and Tommy Dexter.

BROTHER HERE
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Courtright of 10 Ardilla Road entertained Mrs. Courtright's brother, Col. Andrew Samuels, his wife and three daughters for ten days. The Samuels were here on their way from Scofield Barracks in the Hawaiian Islands to Fort Bliss, Texas.

Clipper Club Meets at Smtihs

The Clipper Club met Friday evening in the spacious living room of the U. B. Smith home.

There were 46 present including new members: Harold and Dorothy Hawes, and guests, Charles and Helen Gibbs, Fred and Miriam King, Russell and Emma Usinger, Bill and Jean Thurston, Kennon and Mary Elizabeth Tomme and Kitty Schwanck.

Dr. Mary Woods Bennett was the speaker for the evening. She spoke on personnel management of the pre school age child. Among other things she told when to let a child decide what he should do and when not to let him. It lead to a very helpful and interesting discussion from the young mothers present.

Also on the program were three piano solos beautfiully played by Mrs. Tomme.
